

The Daily Report PM

Baton Rouge, LA

Daily (ex. Sat/Sun)
Circ. 50,000

March 8, 2010

Business Report planner: IT professionals discuss communication ... Historical Foundation's 'memories' ... Home & Garden show set for weekend ... Top La. CEOs talk business

Thursday—The Baton Rouge Chapter of the Association of Information Technology Professionals will meet at 11:30 a.m. at DeAngelo's on Jefferson. Maurice Velasquez, partner at Wolf Creek Business Growth Institute will speak on effective communication of technical information. For registration and more information, go to aitpbatonrouge.org.

Friday-Saturday—The Foundation for Historical Louisiana will hold "Magnolia's Memories VII" from 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. at historic Magnolia Cemetery. The event will feature tours along with heritage shopping, musical entertainment and food. Admission is $30 for foundation members and $40 for guests. For more information, click here.

Saturday-Sunday—The Habitat Home & Garden Show will be held at the Baton Rouge River Center. About 250 booths, showcasing products and services for the home, will be on display. There will be a variety of seminars, covering everything from protection against contractor fraud to outdoor kitchens. The show will be held from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Saturday and from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday. Admission is $7 for adults. For more information, click here.

March 16—The LSU Stephenson Entrepreneurship Center for Executive Education will hold its monthly Breakfast to Business event at 7:30 a.m. at Café Americain. TJ. Stiles, a author of The Last Tycoon: Cornelius Vanderbilt will be the guest speaker. To register, click here.

March 24—10/12 magazine will host the Louisiana CEO Forum at 7 a.m. at the Crowne Plaza in Kenner. Participants include Jay Lapeyre, president of Laitram in Harahan; Marty Mayer, CEO of Stirling Properties in Covington; Alden McDonald Jr., president and CEO of Liberty Bank and Trust Company in New Orleans; Dennis Stine, CEO of Stine Lumber in Lake Charles; and Scott Wester, CEO of Our Lady of the Lake Regional Medical Center in Baton Rouge. Tickets are $20 and include a continental breakfast. Seating is limited and available on a first-come basis. To purchase tickets online, click here.

For the full list of upcoming events, click here.