

Covington, La., sees retail growth SmartBrief.com

03/11/2011

Retailers in Covington, La., are expanding on both sides of Interstate 12, with several new stores and restaurants expected to open over the next several months. The Colonial Pinnacle Nord du Lac is expecting at least four new businesses. Stirling Properties is breaking ground on a new building for several tenants, including one national retailer that has already leased space.