

Jindal appoints Stirling Properties CEO to commerce board

Posted:

COVINGTON - Gov. Bobby Jindal has appointed the president and CEO of Covington-based real estate company Stirling Properties to the Louisiana State Board of Commerce and Industry.

Marty Mayer previously served on the governor's Ethics Advisory Transition Team.

In the new post, Mayer will serve on the board comprised of business, civic and industry leaders from around the state including:

- Richard Gonsoulin of Houma;
- Gale Potts Roque of Natchitoches;
- Lance Belcher of Baton Rouge;
- Bill King of Lake Charles;
- Jeff Elmore of Lafayette;
- Millie Atkins of Monroe;
- Bryan Bossier Sr. of Woodworth;
- Mark Delesdernier Jr. of New Orleans;
- Charles Soprano of Alexandria;
- Jerry Jones of Shreveport;
- Jennifer Wallace of Lake Charles;
- P. Andre Fruge of Lafayette;
- Wilda Smith of Jonesboro;
- Greg Walker of Baton Rouge;
- Louisiana Municipal Association nominee Ronnie Harris, mayor of Gretna; and
- Police Jury Association nominee Gordon Burgess, Tangipahoa Parish president.