

Metro Press Clipping Bureau

An Extraordinary Clipping Service

Phone (225) 791-8888

Gambit

New Orleans, LA

Weekly

Circ. 50,000

April 28, 2009

EVENTS

Tuesday 28

CRESCENT CITY FARMERS MARKET. Broadway Street Market, 200 Broadway St., 861-5898; www.marketumbrella.org — The weekly market features fresh produce, kettle corn, Green Plate specials and flowers. 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

GRATITUDE AND HEALING. St. Tammany Parish Library, Covington Branch, 310 W. 21st Ave., Covington, (985) 893-6280; www.sttammany.lib.la.us/covington.html — Dr. Ron Cathey of the Louisiana Counseling Association and Claude Guillotte, president of the Louisiana Mental Health Counselors Association, present "The Power of Gratitude to Heal, to Energize and to Change Lives." 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

HOUSING SEMINAR. ERA Stirling Properties, Metairie Village Shopping Center, 701 Metairie Road, Suite 2B-201, Metairie, 837-9711; www.erastirling.com — ERA Stirling Properties hosts a seminar focused on tips for first-time home buying and understanding the $8,000 tax credit. Free admission. 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

PHOTOGRAPHY DISCUSSION. Louisiana ArtWorks, 818 Howard Ave., Suite 300, 571-7373; www.louisianaartworks.org — Louisiana ArtWorks presents "Photography: The Index," a panel discussion with photographers Jerry Spagnoli, Deborah Luster, duo Keith Calhoun and Chandra McCormick, freelance curator Eva Diaz and moderator Stephen Hilger. Admission $3. 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

SCHOOL-TO-PRISON PIPELINE FORUM. Sojourner Truth Community Center, 2200 Lafitte St., 827-9963 — The New Orleans Healing Justice Program hosts a community forum to bring together youth and social advocacy groups and build a bridge of trust between youth of color and law enforcement. 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

STRESS WORKSHOP. St. Tammany Parish Library, Covington Branch, 310 W. 21st Ave., Covington, (985) 893-6280; www.sttammany.lib.la.us/covington.html — Dr. Nelson Curtis presents "Stress and How It Affects Your Health." 12:30 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.