

Falgout joins Stirling sales team

COVINGTON — Stirling Properties announces the addition of MaryAnn Falgout to its team of sales professionals serving consumers in the Greater New Orleans Markets.

She comes to Stirling Properties with a bachelor's degree in fine arts and more than 12 years experience in the electronic advertising industry as a sales and graphics professional.

As a commercial real estate sales agent, she has accomplished many office building, office park, and retail land acquisitions.

Falgout is an active member of NOMAR, The Republican Women of St. Tammany Parish, Business and Professional Women, West St. Tammany Chamber of Commerce, and the Hammond Chamber of Commerce.

She is also president of the LCDP, Inc. (le Cocon du Papillon) a 501c3 nonprofit organization working to build a 150-unit affordable housing community for victims of domestic violence.

"We're delighted to have MaryAnn join our winning team," said Marty Mayer, President and CEO of Stirling Properties and ERA Stirling Properties.

"Her optimistic enthusiasm and tremendous attention to detail will certainly benefit our company and our customers," Mayer said.
