

June 26, 2009

Around the Industry: Real estate

by CityBusiness staff reports

A look at recent news, deals, hires, promotions and upcoming events involving the New Orleans metro area real estate industry.

The week in review:

- House rejects New Orleans master plan bill To read more, click here.
- Piccadilly wants to sell Baton Rouge headquarters To read more, click here.
- Fielkow criticizes City Hall relocation plan To read more, click here.
- May new home sales dip 0.6 percent nationwide To read more, click here.
- State suspends land acquisition for teaching hospital To read more, click here.
- May existing home sales rose by 2.4 percent To read more, click here.
- Petunia's closes doors in French Quarter To read more, click here.
- Clarkson opposes voter approval for master plan To read more, click here.
- HUD secretary visits New Orleans To read more, click here.

Appointments:

- Mark Salvetti, director of project management for Covington-based Stirling Properties, has accepted an invitation to serve on the Mary Bird Perkins Cancer Center's Greater Northshore Business and Community Council. •

To sign up for CityBusiness Daily Updates, click here.