

New Orleans CITYBUSINESS

August 14, 2009

Around the Industry: Real estate

by CityBusiness staff reports

A look at recent news, deals, hires, promotions and upcoming events involving the New Orleans metro area real estate industry.

The week in review

- Vote delayed on Saints deal To read more, click here.
- La. Citizens board lowers assessment fee To read more, click here.
- Former Standard Mortgage employee charged with computer fraud To read more, click here.
- N.O.-area foreclosure filings retreat after surge in June To read more, click here.
- LHFA could allow $8,000 tax credit to be used as down payment To read more, click here.
- Home prices continue rise throughout Jefferson Parish To read more, click here.
- Former Plaza Tower speculator tackles Bank of America To read more, click here.
- Fielkow looks at sports complex, water park for Six Flags site To read more, click here.

Hires, appointments, promotions

- ERA Stirling Properties has named David Schneider a sales associate in the Metairie office and Tracey Jacobs and Tara Ryan sales associates in the Destrehan office.

Transactions

- Covington-based Stirling Properties has been named facilities manager of the 40,000-square-foot LOOP Building in the Northpark complex in Covington and the court-appointed keeper for the Carter Plantation Golf Course development in Springfield. Stirling's role is to maintain the golf course's operations. •

To sign up for CityBusiness Daily Updates, click here.