Stirling Properties, the developer of River Chase Shopping Center in the south Louisiana community of Covington, announced that Sam's Club is coming to the center, planning a fall 2012 opening for the new 136,000-sq.-ft. warehouse club.

The largest open-air retail center in St. Tammany Parish, the 640,000-sq.-ft. River Chase is currently anchored by Target, Belk, J.C. Penney, Best Buy, Marshalls, Ross Dress for Less and a 14-screen Hollywood Theater.

Sam's Club will build on a 16.58-acre site, on which Wal-Mart Stores has committed to construct a prototypical design, its first in that design in the state.
