

New Orleans CITYBUSINESS

September 4, 2009

Around the Industry: Real estate

by CityBusiness staff reports

A look back at the week's real estate news and local hirings, promotions and appointments.

The week in review

- 40 Louisiana properties to be auctioned off To read more, click here.
- Hookah Cafe to reopen on Decatur To read more, click here.
- Judge eyes January for first Chinese drywall trial To read more, click here.
- Louisiana mortgage costs rank in middle To read more, click here.
- $7.4M French Market renovation complete To read more, click here.
- After fire, Krantz's Seafood and Po-boys opens on Magazine To read more, click here.
- Sandra Bullock's attorney linked to Garden District home purchase To read more, click here.
- Louisiana leads nation in construction job growth To read more, click here.
- Port of N.O. sells 27 acres for Transportation Consultants headquarters To read more, click here.

Hires, promotions, appointments

- Mandeville resident Gene Ballex has joined Renaissance Realty Services.
- Lizby Eustis, associate broker at Stirling Properties, has received the Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) designation by the Chicago-based CCIM Institute. •

To sign up for CityBusiness Daily Updates, click here.