Lafayette native Denise S. Dugas was recently named behavioral health service line administrator at Baton Rouge General Medical Center.

Dugas

Dugas has more than 16 years experience in mental health, physical rehabilitation and long-term acute care management. As service line administrator, she will oversee behavioral health support services, physician relations and performance improvement.

Dugas was most recently the national director of behavioral health services for Promise Health Care in Boca Raton, Fla. She also served as an administrator of Vermilion Hospital in Lafayette.

Jennifer Venable, financial advisor and co-owner of Wealth Advisors, has successfully completed the 2009 Continuing Education Regulatory Element as required by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

Venable

All financial industry professionals are required to complete the regulatory element every three years. Venable completed a computer-based training assessment that covered registration and reporting, communications with the public, suitability and handling customer accounts.

Wealth Advisors is a locally-owned professional financial planning firm that specializes in retirement planning, risk management, and tax planning and preparation in Louisiana and eight other states.
