

People

past-president. He is a partner with Broussard, Poché, Lewis & Breau.

Rounding out the board are members-at-large Cassidy Albarado and Sarah Bolding, both of Broussard, Poché, Lewis & Breau, and Danielle Blanchet of Home Bank.

ACHIEVEMENTS

■ David Anderson of Anderson Home Builders has earned the Certified Green Professional designation from the National Home Builders Association. Anderson is also involved with the Louisiana Department of Natural Resources Home Energy Rebate Options program, which offers incentives to homeowners to build energy-efficient homes.

MISC

■ Landry Harris & Co., a multi-line insurance brokerage and risk management agency based in Lafayette, has announced the launch of their affiliate company, Howard Risk Advisors. The company will serve a variety of business industries in Louisiana and the entire Gulf Region.

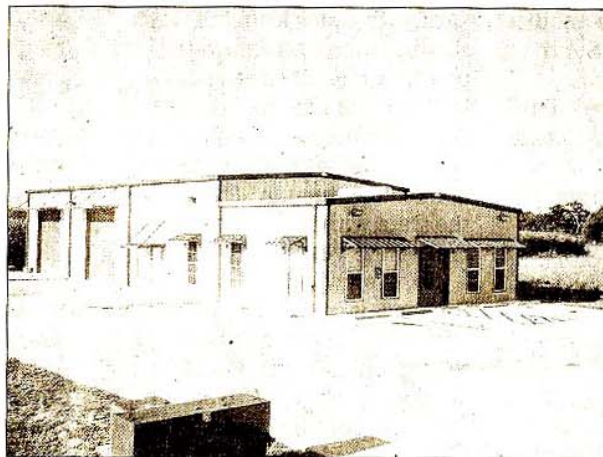

■ Local nonprofit organizations, schools and churches are encouraged to apply for grants from the Pugh Family Fund at Community Foundation of Acadiana. The Pugh Family Fund, which seeks to support organizations that address education and anti-poverty efforts in Acadiana, granted over $50,000 during its first grant cycle earlier this year.

■ Stirling Properties has secured lease agreements on Spirit Halloween Superstore, 4525 Johnston St., and Papa Murphy's, 2419 W. Congress St.

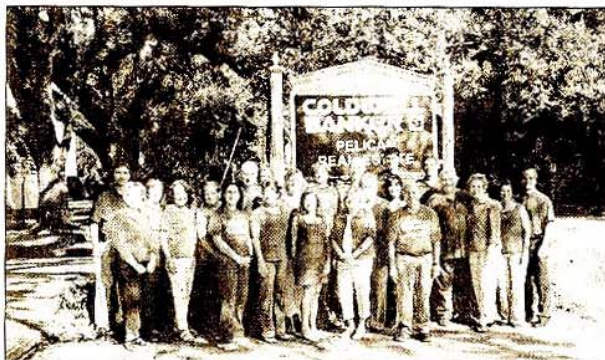

Submitted photos

United Way of Acadiana has received a $5,000 grant from State Farm in support of its PACT for Earnings and Earn It! Keep It! Save It! Program. The program launched last fall and offered free tax preparation for low- and moderate-income families.

Fluid Power Systems & Sales has moved to a new facility at 214 Jared Drive in Broussard. Founded in 2004 and owned by Eric and Rachel Mayeaux, FPS is a multi-line distributor of hydraulic and pneumatic products.

Coldwell Banker recently participated in National College Colors Day by wearing red in support of UL. Twenty-three agents and staff participated, also competing for bragging rights for businesses with the most employees wearing red.

Two St. Bernard Parish fire stations designed by Lafayette architecture firm Chase Design Group have been selected as "Louisiana's Best of 2010" projects by South Central Construction Magazine. Fire Station No. 11 in Yscloskey (pictured) was honored with the Award of Excellence, while an Award of Merit was given to Fire Station No. 7 in Violet.