Stirling Properties will celebrate the grand opening of Stirling Bossier Shopping Center today at 2 p.m. at Airline Drive near I-220.

The ribbon-cutting ceremony will be in the parking area near Best Buy and PetSmart.

Besides those two stores, the 600,000-square-foot development also includes Target, Belk, Lane Bryant/Cacique, Ross Dress for Less and more.

Additional tenants, including PJ's Coffee, FedEx Kinko's and Quiznos are expected to open in late October and November.

More are expected to join over the next 18 months.

Check back for more on today's event.
