

November 6, 2009

Around the Industry: Real estate

by CityBusiness staff reports

A look at recent news, deals, hires, promotions and upcoming events involving the New Orleans metro area real estate industry.

The week in review

- City Council OKs zoning change for riverfront park To read more, click here.
- Grant to pay subcontractors who demolished St. Bernard homes To read more, click here.
- Domain Cos. finds six tenants for new retail space on Tulane Avenue To read more, click here.
- Chinese drywall company agrees to be served class action suit To read more, click here.
- Windsor Court, Ritz-Carlton on Condé Nast top hotels list To read more, click here.
- FEMA urges federal panel to reject $492M Charity claim To read more, click here.
- Value Place to open at least 10 hotels in New Orleans area To read more, click here.
- N.O. area landlords call Thursday's standoff out of the ordinary To read more, click here.
- September U.S. construction spending rises 0.8 percent To read more, click here.
- City invests $2M in CDBG funding for affordable rentals To read more, click here.

Hires, promotions, appointments

- ERA Stirling Properties sales associate Christine Keegan Westenberger has been awarded the National Association of Realtors Green designation. •

To sign up for CityBusiness Daily Updates, click here.