

News Clips Report

BUSINESS HONORS

Advocate, The

12/11/2010

Scott Angelle, secretary of the Louisiana Department of Natural Resources and former Louisiana lieutenant governor, has received the national Epsilon Phi Friend of Extension Award for his support and promotion of the LSU AgCenters 4-H youth program. Angelle was instrumental in securing funds to initiate the 4-H Youth Wetlands Program.

Robert A. Pascal, emeritus professor at Louisiana State University's Paul M. Hebert Law Center, has been named a Fellow of the Louisiana Bar Foundation. Louisiana Bar Foundation exists to preserve, honor and improve our system of justice and advance the reality of equal justice under the law.

Bradley S. Comeaux, Paige Sigsworth and Brynn Lewis Leroux completed their certification examinations and are now Diplomates of the American Board of Pediatric Dentistry. The examination process designed to validate the knowledge, application and performance requisite to the delivery of competent care in pediatric dentistry.

Representatives from Stirling Properties, Richard Price Contracting Co., LLC and Duplantis Design Group accepted an award on behalf of Hammond Square. The power-lifestyle center received Louisiana's Best of 2010 award of merit in the civil construction category. Awards were given by McGraw Hill Construction Co. and South Central Construction magazine for construction and design excellence.

Copyright © 2010 Baton Rouge Advocate